

The United States Club of Rome

CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO THE CONFERENCE ON

“The Future of the American Hemisphere”

The Club of Rome is a nonpartisan, nongovernmental organization founded in Rome in 1968. Its mission is to encourage both thinking and action toward the solution of the “world problematique”. The Club of Rome is currently the most global think tank in the world, with offices in 32 countries spread in all 5 continents. The American Chapter of the Club of Rome will hold this conference in Miami to present its preliminary report on “The Future of the Western Hemisphere”, in which it analyzes the social, economic, legal and environmental issues and projections for the next 50 years in our hemisphere. Members of the scientific, academic, forensic, business and political communities will be invited to offer their views on current concerns that may affect our continent in the next future.
